

Bold indicates that a variable is related (e.g., $P < 0.10$) to both the primary outcome MCID on pain severity at 3 months (after adjusting for pre-specified covariates) and missingness of the outcome at either 3 months or all time points (after adjusting for pre-specified covariates)